

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry television program is a case of a political interest using public airwaves free of charge, for partisan politics, not the public interest. Sinclair should present balanced news coverage, not phony "news" that should be announced to the viewing public as paid political advertising.

This is an example of why media consolidation should be reversed by the FCC.

Sincerely,
Susan Thompson